Catches Ceremonial First Pitch from Tom Gorzelanny

CHICAGO—Over the weekend, Rep. Mike Quigley (IL-05) helped open the Rink at Wrigley with Cubs owner Tom Ricketts, Ald. Tom Tunney, State Rep. Sara Feigenholtz, and Cubs Pitcher Tom Gorzelanny. Quigley caught a wild ceremonial first pitch (photo below) from Gorzelanny, an Evergreen Park native. The Rink at Wrigley, located at the corner of Clark and Waveland, will be open until the end of February.

Rep. Quigley speaks at the opening of the Rink at Wrigley as Cubs pitcher Tom Gorzelanny (left) looks on.

Rep. Quigley skies for the ceremonial first pitch (a high fastball) from Cubs hurler Tom Gorzelanny.

Rep. Quigley (left) shakes hands with Cubs pitcher Tom Gorzelanny and calls for a changeup next time after catching the ceremonial first pitch at the Rink at Wrigley.

High resolution versions of all photos are available upon request.